

Read the following dialogue and choose the best answer

- Look at the girls over there. They are twins.
- No, they can't be. They look different!
- They do, but they are twins. The one talking over the phone is Carol and her sister's name is Cindy. They are not identical twins.
- They are so different! Cindy is much taller / taler / tallier and slimer / slimmer / slimmest
- - No, she isn't. She's just wearing her dress short / shortier / shorter and the heels highist / highest / higher than Carol.
- Cindy's hair is also darker / darkest / dark and long / longer / longger than Carol's but I think Carol's prettier / more pretier / pritier and talkative / more talkative / talkativier.
- No, I think that Cindy is much more prettier. I think she's prettier / prettiest / the prettiest girl I've ever seen. I know, she is less lively than Carol but she's so beautiful! She's also smart. She's the smartest / the smarter / more smarter student in our group. Her assignments are always better / the best / best.
- I see. You really like Cindy.
